Instructions on applying for scholarships

- ☐ Carefully read through the semester's announcement of available scholarships and the instructions in the Scholarship Handbook. Only apply for scholarships that have been announced as available.
- ☐ Read through the specific rules of the scholarships that you intend to apply for and make sure to apply only for those to which you fulfill all the required demands.
- ☐ All the nation's scholarships are applied for on the same form, unless exceptions are particularly stipulated in the Scholarship Handbook.
- ☐ Eligibility and right of precedence must be proven by appropriate documents, such as birth certificate, high school-diploma and any other such documents that are required in order to certify given information.
- ☐ To fulfill the requirement of having grown up in a specific area you have to have lived in the area in question for at least 6 years prior to your high school graduation. This must be prior to your 20th birthday. If the applicant is born in the area but graduated somewhere else it must be included for which period of time he/she lived in the area. If this information is not included the person will be regarded as not having grown up in the area in question. A document with an excerpt from Folksboksföringsregistret can be requested from the Swedish Tax Office and must be signed and stamped by the same to be valid.
- ☐ All additional documents that are copies and included in the application must be attested by two people (With signature, printed name and phone number. Attestments by a close kin are not valid.). The application must include certificate of previous studies, certificate of registry for the current semester (both supplied by the university) and a confidential declaration of personal finances (a separate form supplied by Norrlands).
- ☐ The application itself must be witnessed and controlled by two people (not close kin) who have been given the chance to review all documents. A spouse, a partner you are living with or a relative are regarded as close kin.
- ☐ Be extra thorough when filling in financial information, everything regarding income, assets etc. must be entered with numbers and no other signs.
- ☐ Fill in the application in an easily readable manner with an ink pen. Both the application and the confidential declaration must be signed by the applicant.
- ☐ Make sure to control which document you need and be sure to mail or hand in the application in time. We do not accept additional documents after the last day of application.

An incorrectly written application and confidential declaration, or a lack of any other required documents will result in your application being deemed invalid. Be thorough!
