Instructions for applying to scholarships

- ☐ Carefully read through the semester's announcement and the instructions in the Scholarship Handbook. Only apply for scholarships that have been announced as available.
- ☐ Read through the specific rules of the scholarships that you intend to apply for and make sure to only apply for those that you fulfill all the required demands for.
- ☐ All the nation's scholarships are applied for on the same form unless otherwise is particularly stipulated in the Scholarship Handbook.
- ☐ Eligibility and right of privilege must be proven by the appropriate documents, such as birth certificate, high school-diploma and any other called for.
- ☐ To fulfill the requirement of having grown up in a specific area you have to have lived in the area in question at least 6 years prior to once High School graduation, and this must be prior to once 20th birthday. If the applicant is born in the area but graduated somewhere else there must be included for which period of time he/she lived in the area. If this information is not included the person will be regarded as not having grown up to the area in question. Such a document with an excerpt from Folksboksföringsregistret can be requested from the Swedish Tax Office and must be signed and stamped by the same.
- ☐ All additional documents included in the application that are copies must be attested by two people (With signature, printed name and phone number. Attestments by a close kin are not valid.). The application must include certificate of previous studies, certificate of registry for the current semester (both supplied by the university) and a confidential declaration of economy (a separate form supplied by Norrlands).
- ☐ The application itself must be witnessed and controlled by two people (not close kin) who have been given the chance to review all documents. As close kin are regarded a spouse, a partner with share living situation or another relative.
- ☐ Be extra thorough when filling in financial information, everything regard income, assets and so on must be entered with numbers and no other signs.
- ☐ Fill in the application in a easily readable manner with an ink pen. Both the application and the confidential declaration must be signed by the applicant.
- ☐ Make sure to control which document you need and send in the application in time. We do not accept additional documents after the last day of application.

An incorrectly written application and confidential declaration, or a lack of the other required documents will result in your application being deemed invalid.

So be thorough!
